Through the d.HOLIDAY program, Diaverum gives patients

the opportunity to explore Morocco's treasures without compromising their care. Whether you're drawn to the imperial elegance of Meknès, the cultural heartbeat of Marrakech, or the sunny shores of Agadir, you can travel with peace of mind, knowing that high-quality dialysis treatment is close by.

This travel guide aims to showcase the destinations in Morocco where Diaverum clinics are present, making it easier for patients to travel and enjoy the beautiful culture, landscapes, and attractions of the country, all while receiving the expert dialysis care they need. Whether you're visiting iconic cities like Marrakech and Agadir or exploring charming towns like Meknes, you can rest assured that world-class healthcare is always within reach, allowing you to make the most of your journey.

Know more about our d.HOLIDAY Programme :

The Marrakech & Al Haouz Region

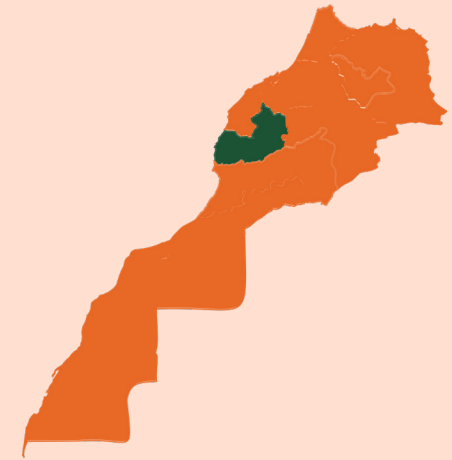

Located in the heart of southern Morocco, the Marrakech & Al Haouz region is one of the country's most captivating destinations. It blends the historic and vibrant energy of Marrakech, Morocco's cultural capital, with the natural beauty and serenity of the Al Haouz province, which stretches into the foothills of the High Atlas Mountains.

This region offers a unique contrast: the bustling medina and iconic landmarks of Marrakech on one side, and on the other, peaceful valleys, Berber villages, and open desert landscapes that invite relaxation and discovery.

It is in this remarkable setting that Diaverum's Marrakech clinics welcomes patients, offering high-quality dialysis care in a city that bridges tradition and modernity.

Highlights:

- Ourika Valley: A lush and scenic valley just 30 km from Marrakech, known for its waterfalls, riverside cafés, and cool mountain air.
- Setti-Fatma: A charming Berber village and the starting point for hikes to seven picturesque waterfalls.

- Agafay Desert: A rocky desert plateau offering unique desert experiences just outside the city—perfect for camel rides, quad tours, and stargazing in eco-lodges.
- Tahanaout: A peaceful town with panoramic views, traditional markets, and cultural encounters
- Imlil & the Atlas Foothills (a bit further out): A favorite base for trekking and discovering traditional Berber mountain life.

This diverse and welcoming region is ideal for patients and travelers seeking both cultural immersion and natural beauty—all within reach of expert care at Diaverum Marrakech.

Marrakech

The heart of Morocco's culture and energy, Marrakech offers an explosion of colors, flavors, and sounds. From its historic palaces and bustling souks to the calm of the Majorelle Garden or a sunset in the Agafay Desert, Marrakech blends tradition with luxury and adventure.

★ Dont miss:

- Jemaa el-Fnaa: A vibrant square with music, food stalls, and storytellers.
- Bahia Palace & El Badi Palace: Highlights of Moroccan architecture and history.
- Majorelle Garden & YSL Museum: A botanical haven with a striking blue villa and design legacy.
- Koutoubia Mosque: The spiritual landmark of the city.
- Souks of the Medina: A maze of alleys full of handmade goods and local flavors.

Nearby:

- Agafay Desert (40 min): A rocky desert perfect for glamping, camel rides, and magical sunsets – no need to travel far to feel the Sahara's spirit.
- Ourika Valley (1h): Lush nature, waterfalls, and Berber villages in the foothills of the Atlas Mountains.

The Souss-Massa Region

Located in southwestern Morocco, the Souss-Massa region stretches from the Atlantic coast to the foothills of the Anti-Atlas mountains. Known for its exceptional biodiversity, strong Amazigh (Berber) heritage, and year-round sunshine, this region offers a harmonious blend of nature, tradition, and modernity.

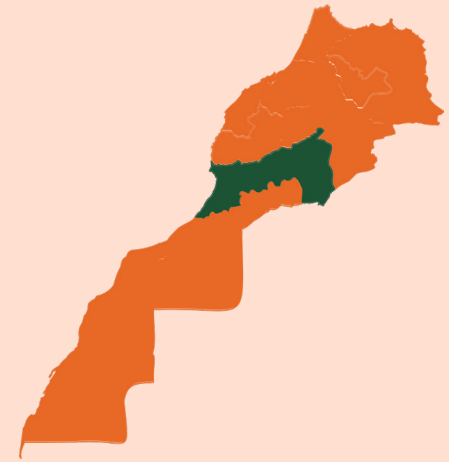

At the heart of the region lies Agadir, a modern coastal city that serves as a key medical hub and the location of Diaverum's clinic, offering high-quality dialysis care in a relaxed and well-connected setting.

Highlights:

- Agadir: A seaside city famous for its crescent-shaped beach, palm-lined boulevards, and mild climate. It's a great base for healthcare and leisure.
- Taghazout: A picturesque fishing village turned surf hotspot, just north of Agadir, known for its beaches and laid-back vibe.
- Tiznit: Renowned for its silver craftsmanship and traditional medina, this town blends cultural heritage with artisanal beauty.

- Sous Massa National Park: A haven for birdwatchers and nature lovers, home to rare species like the bald ibis and diverse coastal ecosystems.
- Paradise Valley: A beautiful palm-filled gorge inland from Agadir, ideal for day trips, hiking, and natural swimming pools.
- Anti-Atlas Mountains: Offering a more rugged and authentic Moroccan landscape, perfect for exploration and discovering Berber culture.

With its mix of sun, sea, culture, and nature, Souss-Massa is an ideal destination for travelers seeking both quality medical care and relaxation—all within reach thanks to Diaverum's presence in Agadir.

Agadir

A modern seaside city on the Atlantic coast, Agadir is perfect for relaxation and ocean views. With its long beaches, sunny climate, and family-friendly attractions like the Crocoparc, it also offers easy getaways to Taghazout, a surfer's paradise, and Tiznit, known for silver craftsmanship.

★ Dont miss:

- Agadir Beach & Promenade: Ideal for seaside walks and local dining.
- Kasbah Agadir Oufella: Overlooking the bay, the ruins offer spectacular views at sunset.
- Souk El Had: A lively marketplace with everything from crafts to spices
- Crocoparc (Alligator Park): A fun and surprising botanical zoo just outside the city.
- La Médina d'Agadir (Coco

Polizzi): A beautifully reconstructed medina celebrating traditional architecture.

Nearby

- Taghazout (30 min): A laid-back surf village, loved for its beaches, yoga retreats, and cafes.
- Tiznit (1h30): Famous for its silver jewelry and authentic medina – a haven for artisans and culture seekers.

The Saïss Region

Nestled between the Middle Atlas mountains and the Rif range, the Saïss region is one of Morocco's most fertile and historically rich areas. With its rolling plains, olive groves, vineyards, and ancient medinas, this region combines agricultural abundance with a strong cultural legacy.

At its heart is Meknès, one of Morocco's four imperial cities and home to two Diaverum clinics, offering top-quality dialysis care in a setting full of history and charm. The region's strategic location also provides easy access to other fascinating destinations such as Fez and Ifrane.

Highlights:

- Meknès: Known for its monumental gates, royal granaries, and UNESCO-listed old town, Meknès is a city of quiet beauty and rich imperial history.
- Volubilis: An impressive archaeological site of Roman ruins located just outside Meknès, offering a glimpse into ancient North African civilization.
- Moulay Idriss Zerhoun: A sacred town perched on hills near Meknès, revered as the birthplace of Islam in Morocco.
- Fez (nearby): Morocco's spiritual and cultural capital, with its vast medieval medina, artisan workshops, and historic religious schools.
- Ifrane (a short drive away): Known as "Little Switzerland" for its alpine architecture and snowy winters, ideal for skiing and nature lovers.

- Château Roslane: One of Morocco's most prestigious wineries, located on the Saïss plain, offering tastings and vineyard tours.

With its blend of imperial grandeur, serene countryside, and trusted healthcare access in Meknès, the Saïss region is an ideal destination for combining wellness, exploration, and cultural enrichment.

Meknes

A peaceful imperial city rich in history, Meknès is known for its majestic gates, traditional medina, and nearby Roman ruins. It's the perfect destination for those seeking authenticity, quiet charm, and access to the nearby cultural hub of Fès or the green hills of Ifrane.

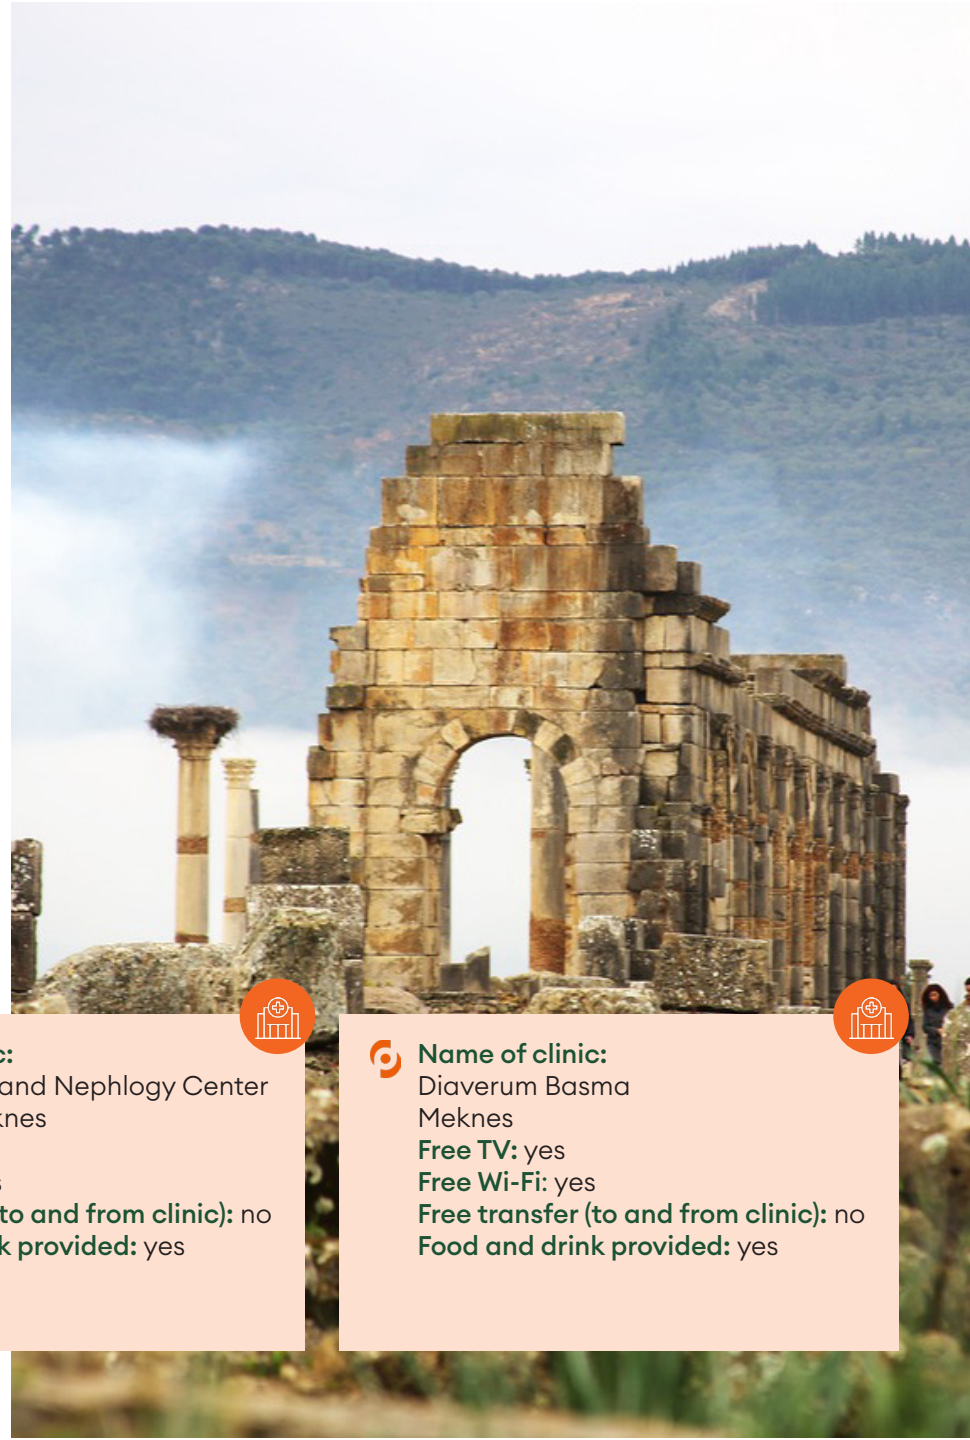

★ Dont miss:

- Bab Mansour: Morocco's most iconic gate, richly decorated with zellige tiles.
- Royal Stables of Moulay Ismail: Vast historical ruins showcasing the grandeur of the Alaouite dynasty.
- Medina & Souks: Smaller and calmer than other cities, perfect for authentic local shopping.
- Volubilis: A well-preserved Roman site just 30 minutes away.
- Château Roslane
Vineyards: One of

Morocco's premier wineries in a scenic countryside setting.

Nearby

- Fès (45 min by train): A UNESCO-listed imperial city with one of the world's oldest medinas and the famous Al Quaraouiyine University.
- Ifrane (1h30 drive): Known as «Little Switzerland» for its alpine architecture, and a winter destination for snow and ski activities.
